Possession of this ticket signals acceptance of the following terms:

This ticket must be kept until the end of the visit and must be presented to staff upon request. Any manipulation or modification of the details on this ticket is completely forbidden. The organisation may deny access to the holder of any ticket that has been altered, ripped or is suspected of being counterfeit. The organisation reserves the right to deny admission, under current law, to anyone involved in behaviour that could be detrimental to the rest of the visitors, staff or the proper course of the visit. No smoking, drinking or eating is allowed on the premises. Use of this ticket implies authorisation for the ticketholder's image to be recorded and used in audiovisual materials made public on the Basílica de la Sagrada Família Internet website, Youtube, Facebook or Pinterest for exclusively informational purposes indefinitely. The organisation reserves the right to modify the routes, limit the spaces available to visit on the premises or close services due to safety issues, restoration, maintenance, adverse weather conditions or temporary events. Visiting the towers may cause dizziness or vertigo and anyone affected by these conditions is prohibited from going up. People with functional diversity, pregnant women and baby carriages are likewise prohibited from visiting the towers. Children under six may not use the lifts. If unable to visit the towers due to technical issues or weather, the lift fee shall be reimbursed via the original payment method. For reimbursements due to delay or cancellation of the visit by the visitor, the ticketholder must submit official proof of the justifiable situation before the amount will be returned.

This ticket is for use by individual visitors. Parties of more than 9 people must purchase group tickets, so groups of 10 or more will not be allowed to enter with this ticket. Fraudulent use of individual tickets shall entail forfeiture of any right to a refund or to lodge a claim.
